

NHSRCL resumes various activities after relaxations

NHSRCL is gearing up to open offices and resume various site works like construction activity, land acquisition process, consent camps etc. The lockdown period was used to coordinate efforts among different departments and bring them in sync with various stakeholders like RITES, Japanese International Consultants etc along with organising their first ever online pre-bid meeting for three active tenders.